When making use of xeriscape techniques we benefit by reducing water consumption, maintenance, use of fertilizers and pesticides.

Other Sources:

Crossroads Nursery, Pullman
SYG Nursery, Pullman
Fiddlers Ridge Farms, Potlatch

http://www.arboretum.wsu.edu/xeriscaping.html
http://www.wnps.org/cbasin/pdf/eastern_wa_native_plants.pdf
http://www.wnps.org/landscaping/nurserylist.html
http://nwpublicmedia.typepad.com/our_organic_northwest/xeriscaping/http://www.ext.colostate.edu/ptlk/ptlk1900.html
http://eartheasy.com/grow_xeriscape.htm#c http://extension.usu.edu/files/publications/publication/EC_458.pdf
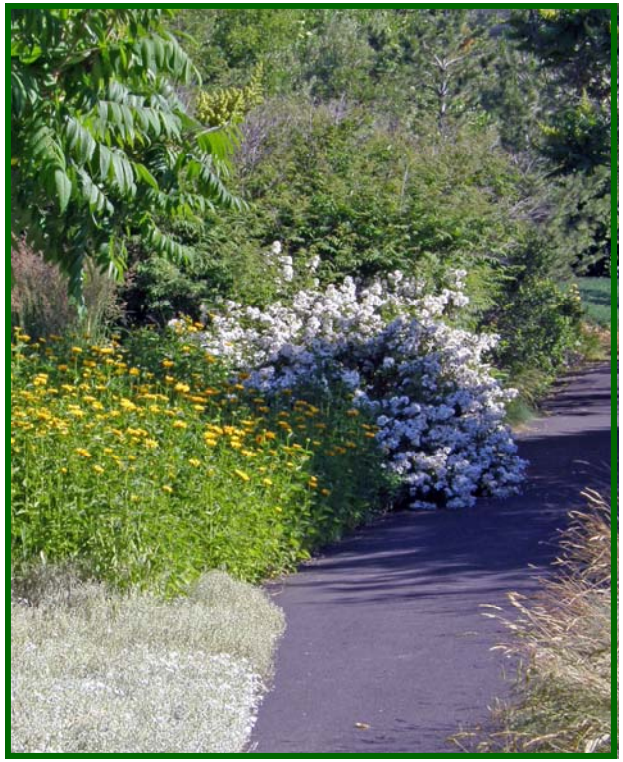
www.plantsofthewild.com/
www.highcountrygardens.com/

5/26/11 H:Forms:11 Parks Xeroscape brochure

Pullman Parks & Recreation...Your Recreation Connection

City of Pullman
Parks & Recreation
240 SE Dexter
Pullman, WA 99163

Xeriscape Plant List



"Water conservation using creative landscaping."

An important part of using the xeriscape concept is to group plants with similar water needs together in beds. Allowing them to be watered as needed reducing water waste.

Bulbs

Crocus

Daffodil

Eranthis - Winter Aconite

Muscari - Grape Hyacinth

Tulip

Grasses

Calamagrostis - Feather Reed Grass

Festuca - Fescue

Helictotrichon - Oat Grass

Nassella/Stipa - Lair Grass

Sorghastrum - Indian Grass

Perennials

Achillea - Yarrow

Aquilegia - Columbine

Artemesia - Black Sage, Lemon Plant, Sagebrush, Wormwood

Aster - Aster

Cerastium - Snow in Summer

Dalea - Purple Prairie Flower

Dianthus - Pinks

Gaura - Wand Flower, Bee Blossom

Genista - Dwarf Broom

Gypsophilia - Baby's Breath

Helenium - Sneezeweed

Helianthemum - Rock Rose, Sun Rose

Heliopsis - False Sunflower

Heuchera - Coral Bells

Hyssopus - Hyssop

Kniphofia - Red Hot Poker

Lavendula - Lavender

Liatris - Gay Feather

Marrubium - Horehound

Nepeta - Catmint, Catnip

Papaver - Oriental Poppy

Penstemon - Beard Tongue

Perovskia - Russian Sage

Phlomis - Jerusalem Sage

Ratibida - Prairie Coneflower

Saponaria - Soapwort

Sedum - Stonecrop

Stachys - Lamb's Ear

Remember, beauty does not have to be sacrificed when establishing a xeriscape landscape. When done correctly, they look no different from traditional landscapes

Shrubs

Aronia melanocarpa - Black Chokeberry

Bush cinquefoils - Potentilla

Caragana microphyla - Little leaf Siberian pea

Cercocarpus ledifolus - Curl leaf mahogany

Cornus sericea - red osier dogwood

Cotoneaster divaricata - Spreading Cotoneaster

Cotoneaster multifolia - Flowering cotoneaster

Elaeagnus angustifolia - Russian Olive

Elaeagnus umbellate - Autumn Olive

Juniper

Mahonia aquafolium - Oregon Grape

Rhus aromatica - Fragrant Sumac

Rhus typhina - Staghorn Sumac

Rosa rubrifolia - Red leaf Rose

Rosa - many

Sorbaria sorbifolia - Ural False Spirea

Trees

Abies concolor - White Fir

Corylus - Turkish Filbert

Crataegus phaenopyrum - Washington Hawthorn

Elaeagnus angustifolia - Russian Olive

Larix - Larch

Pinua flexilis - Limber Pine

Pinus nigra - Austrian Pine

Tilia tomentosa - Silver Linden

Quercus shumaridiisuumardi - Shumard's Red Oak